

Power to a certain few limits freedom to the general public to hear all points of view. We need more owners not less to guarantee this right. We also, Chairman Powell, need you to be more open. What are you hiding from the public?